HIMSELF FOR CHRISTMAS.

Keep the Memories of Christmas.

WINTER SONG.

When I think of the year that has passed,
And the things that have happened to me,
And the friends that have been so kind,
And the love that has been so true,
I feel that I am a very poor man,
And I am very much in need of you.
I am a poor man, and I am very much in need of you.
I am a poor man, and I am very much in need of you.

Christmas in the Olden Time.

How on yonder hill the wind is chill,
And the snow is falling so fast,
And the children are playing so gay,
And the birds are singing so sweet,
I feel that I am a very poor man,
And I am very much in need of you.
I am a poor man, and I am very much in need of you.
I am a poor man, and I am very much in need of you.

Christmas Decorations.

Boughs from the holly and mistletoe berry,
Circles that round in a constant ring,
Colors that glow in the light of the sun,
And the stars that are shining so bright,
I feel that I am a very poor man,
And I am very much in need of you.
I am a poor man, and I am very much in need of you.
I am a poor man, and I am very much in need of you.

"FAIRB, Oct. Agt. 6th
W. C. NUNN, Belleville.

"DEAR SIR,—The Wind Mill, I am to state, is working well and promising most successful croppings on hay. It has cost me thousands of dollars well, (containing great daily labor) but little advantage in my work—saw a beautiful supply of water at for Sheep, Cattle and Horses, with some action of pumping by means from a depth of 60 feet.

We have had much to inspect, and will avail themselves of the benefits as they are assured of its proving of great utility, of which I entertain no doubt.

I am, yours respectfully,
